BAD MAN LYNCHED.

Monroe Johnson, Colored, Who Murdered Three Persons,

Hanged by Masked Men and Riddled With Bullets.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 18.—Monroe Johnson, the negro who murdered Mrs. John Foster on the night of the 31st of August, was lynched at four o'clock this morning near the scene of his crime. Johnson was arrested in Atlanta about ten days ago and held to await a requisition. Saturday Special Officer Danney went to Atlanta for the prisoner. He left there on the night train with his prisoner handcuffed and chained to a seat. At Leeds, sixteen miles from this city, the train was stopped. The moment came when the crowd of four hundred men armed with shotguns boarded the engine, while a dozen others entered the cars. When they caught sight of the negro there was a shout, and they seized him. They did not wait to unlock the chain, but tore the seat from the floor, and dragged it out with the negro. Two hundred yards from the depot a large walnut tree stood, and to this the mob hurried. A rope was already around the negro's neck, and in a moment he was suspended in mid-air. The mob then moved off ten paces and with shotguns, rifles and pistols, riddled the writhing body with bullets. The body remained hanging to the limb all day and was viewed by hundreds of people. The crime for which Johnson was lynched was the brutal murder of a respectable white lady. He made a full confession of his crime. He had previously killed two negroes, served two terms in State prison and was considered the worst character ever in this community.

GUILTY.

Fred Munchrath Convicted of Manslaughter in the Hadcock Case.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 18.—A few moments after 2 o'clock this afternoon the jury, which went out at 6:30 last evening in the Hadcock case of the State of Iowa against Fred Munchrath, Jr., brought in the following verdict:

"We, the jury, find the defendant, Fred Munchrath, Jr., guilty of manslaughter."

G. R. McDONALD, Foreman.

The jury was polled, and when asked whether they wished to return a verdict, answered "Yes." The extreme penalty for manslaughter in Iowa is eight years in the penitentiary. The judge announced that sentence would be pronounced on Monday, September 23. The prisoner received the verdict calmly. He remains at liberty on his own bond. It is said the jury took but two ballots on the question of guilt, the remaining ballots being on the degree of guilt.

Cholera's March.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—The cholera outbreak in Italy continues to increase in seriousness. The cholera has been spreading in fact that the disease is of a more virulent type than that of recent years. This is attributed by experts to the failure to completely stamp out the germs of former epidemics, which has given an indigenous and more active character to the scourge. Since Sept. 18, the cholera returns for today show 14 new cases and 6 deaths in Catania, 46 cases 16 deaths in Naples, 4 cases 3 deaths in Palermo, 89 cases 21 deaths in Messina. The cholera epidemic at Messina is of the most violent character, death occurring almost immediately within an hour after the appearance of the disease. The mortality is not confined to the lower classes. The epidemic has reached the inmates of the prisons. It is reported that many new cases of cholera are occurring in Rome daily.

THE ANARCHISTS.

Several of Them Willing to Pose as Martyrs by Quietly Abiding the Decision of the Court.

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—The Anarchists condemned to die November 11 are pulling one way in their efforts to save their lives and their friends are pulling another. The convicted men are opposed to an appeal to Governor Oglesby for Executive clemency, and three of them are even opposed to their cases going to the United States Supreme Court. They prefer to let the sentence against them stand, expressing a willingness to die for what they call their cause. But their friends believe that a live Anarchist is worth more than a dead one, and the amnesty association has already started upon the road a petition to the Governor asking him to commute the sentence to imprisonment for life. The petition says that "In any case involving life, humanity and the State are better served by vigorous execution of a sentence, the justice of which is questioned by many of our people," and urges that the granting of the petition "will conduce to the peace of the State." The association will confine its work to this State. The Anarchists had many visitors to-day. There is a young woman who is devoting a good deal of attention to Ling, and it is conjectured that another proxy marriage is on foot. The number of curious people who want to see the Anarchists is increasing steadily.

What Parliament Has Done.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—As the present session of Parliament comes to an end to-day a brief summary of the work done and of the bills introduced will be made. The legislative reforms promised and not performed would perhaps be more instructive, but has to be omitted owing to its great length. The Queen's speech in January last specified fifteen measures, the completion of which was promised to the prosperity of the country. Out of the fifteen six have passed and became law, viz: The Irish Crimes bill, the Irish Land bill, the Allotment bill, which every laborer is to have his long-promised three acres and a cow if he can pay for them, and three other measures peculiar to Scotland. Nothing particular has been done for England, and everybody seems glad to have been let alone so severely. Parliament has set for sixty-three weeks, and has lost by death five members, and by elevation or succession to the peerage eight, while twenty new members were introduced at session.

Family of Six Burned to Death.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 18.—At 12:30 o'clock this morning an explosion occurred in the grocery store of Deshaud M. Messia, at the corner of Esplanade and Dauphin streets, and a moment later the entire building was on fire, and all escape from the upper stories, where Messia's family resided, were cut off. Every effort of the firemen to rescue the unfortunate inmates of the burning building failed, and the fire, fed by the furniture, spread rapidly, and in a few minutes the family of six, consisting of Messia, his wife and their four little children were burned to death.

SPIES & CO.

How the Anarchists Stand the Dread Judgment.

Still Hopeful That Death by Hanging Will Not be Meted Out.

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—Visitors to the Anarchists were numerous, and at both the morning and evening exercise hours they were fairly besieged. Nina Van Zandt was on hand early at the morning hour. Her face shows that she has taken the decision as easily. Spies was as nonchalant as ever. Parsons' wife also arrived early. Her demeanor from her entrance to her departure was defiant. Fisher's sister and his brother-in-law had a good deal to say to him. His wife is in delicate health and does not often appear at the jail. Neobe kept out of sight. Miss Engel's presence seemed to brighten her father up. Fisher's wife and child, and Mrs. Schwab and her child were also among the visitors. Outside of two or three detectives and a police officer here and there, nothing unusual appeared in the way of police protection for the jail. Plenty of men were within easy call if occasion demands, and New police could be brought by the wagon-load within five minutes. There is little danger of any attack. Agitator George Schilling left for New York and other Eastern cities to-night, as the agent for the Anarchists, the defense association. He is authorized to retain the best legal advice. The members of the defense association refuse to state who will be retained, but from vague hints it is surmised that an attempt will be made to secure the services of Roscoe Conkling. Schilling will also appeal to the great labor movement, and New police could be brought by the wagon-load within five minutes. There is little danger of any attack.
